BOOK OF LISTS ADDS INTERACTIVE WEBSITE

The Book of Lists just got better with the addition of a BizWest website offering called DataBank, through which visitors can search for company records by type of list, as well as see list rankings. Advertisers in this book will now enjoy clicks from users searching for companies.

The Book of Lists and DataBank remain a source for tracking your competition, with rankings of companies in dozens of industries, providing a way to see how your business stacks up with others in your industry.

It's a source for information on potential vendors, comparing them with their own competitors, identifying key contacts, etc.

It's packed with leads on potential employers. What better resource could you find than a publication that identifies thousands of companies by number of employees, revenue or some other factor?

It reveals the fastest-growing private companies in the region, with our Mercury 100 lists, ranking companies by two-year revenue growth.

BizWest's research team works hard to produce this data throughout the year, updating addresses, key contacts, revenue, employee numbers and many other data points. These updates take into account companies that have added workers or reduced their workforce, moved to a new location, changed their name, etc.

Our lists range from the banking sector to health care, technology to business services, and many others.

The Book of Lists represents a year-long research effort and includes many lists with combined rankings for Boulder, Broomfield, Larimer and Weld counties. In some cases, however, we've opted to publish separate lists for the Boulder Valley and Northern Colorado.

The Book of Lists compiles lists that have been published in our paper in 2020, along with some that were newly researched or updated for this edition. Listings include addresses, phone numbers, key contacts, descriptions of products and services, revenues and employment.

See an intriguing company in the Book of Lists? Find out more about it by searching articles on our website at www.bizwest.com. Did we miss your company, or does your listing require an update? Email us at research@bizwest.com.

And don't forget to check out the DataBank section of BizWest.com.

Escape to Nature

In these stressful times, people seek the peace, balance and harmony found in nature. I paint to create watercolors that offer the illusion of being in nature with the belief that art enhances the spaces in which we live and those in which we do business.

Besides putting paint to paper, I also find satisfaction teaching watercolor painting to both beginners and established artists at my studio in Broomfield, Colorado. To learn more, please contact me at vickeyswensonart.com or text/phone 303.444.1525.

Restrictions on Foreclosures and Evictions Loosen

Private landlords and lenders' hands were tied in initiating and prosecuting some legal actions against defaulting tenants and borrowers in Colorado for some or all of 2020. Governor Polis' various COVID-19 executive orders seriously restricted or temporarily prohibited foreclosure and eviction actions statewide. Most of the restrictions at the state level, however, have expired, and foreclosure and eviction actions since resumed in Colorado, subject to some remaining restrictions and requirements. Limited federal moratoriums remain in place.

Evictions. A federal eviction moratorium is currently in place until March 31, 2021. The federal moratorium, however, only applies to residential evictions—not commercial evictions. Even for residential evictions, the tenant seeking to take advantage of the moratorium must meet certain financial qualifications and follow a declaration procedure. Moreover, the moratorium only applies for evictions sought on the basis of non-payment of rent. If an eviction is sought because a lease expires or for some other breach of the lease, the residential eviction may proceed. At the state level, eviction restrictions are mostly lifted in Colorado. All that remains is a protection from late fees for both residential and commercial tenants pursuant to Governor Polis' Executive Order D 2021 029, which expires at the end of February if not extended before.

Foreclosures. A federal foreclosure moratorium is presently in place for federally backed loans, but does not apply to loans made by private lenders where a federal mortgage program is not involved. At the state level, Governor Polis' foreclosure moratorium expired in 2020, and is no longer in place.

Private landlords and lenders in Colorado have not escaped the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, but federal and state level restrictions on evictions and foreclosures have generally loosened. Certain notices must still be given to defaulting tenants before an eviction action may proceed, and executive orders are constantly changing in these areas. Landlords and lenders seeking to take action against tenants and borrowers should ensure they have complied with state and federal requirements before taking legal action.

The Essence Of Life At The Worthington

Written in 2018. We look forward to these days returning.

The building in which I live is one of the most interesting in town. Not because of its architecture but because its philosophy is sound.

Its residents want to stay active. They feel they are young at heart no matter their actual years and developing a program to keep their days/ lives interesting does not give the staff any fears.

They offer exercise groups for healthy bodies and special games for the mind.

Nature and science videos, movies, crafting and you will find

It is possible to go shopping, to a museum or a picnic in the park; Walk through a bronze foundry or see Christmas lights after dark.

Feed fish at a hatchery. Drive to Loveland to hear a Barbershop choir and quartet.

Attend a dinner theater program or go for a ride and eat ice cream at sunset,

A free show at the Lincoln Center or symphony dress rehearsal in the Fall.

Gambling in Blackhawk, a trip to hear the Elk mating call.

Although many things are offered to go-see and do. Interesting things keep happening inside of the building, too.

Special speakers on different topics. Holidays to celebrate with good food and all kinds of music and entertainment to anticipate.

A Wine Social each month to look forward to and the Birthday Bash is always a nice big "to do".

You can do as much as you choose or as little as you want.

Transportation is provided, to see doctors as well as for the fun jaunt.

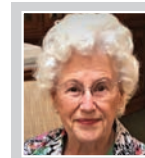

With a walking group, a book club, and current events to ponder,

Life can be complete in this building, no need to further wander!

To me, the Worthington is more than a structure made of mortar, sticks and stone. It exudes the essence of living!

I am comfortable and content.

It is my home!

CPA & BUSINESS ADVISOR

How Outsourcing Your Accounting Can Save You in the Long Term

The effects of COVID-19 have had substantial impacts on organizations and their bottom lines. Financial records will be key when it comes to most tax and economic relief provisions. As guidance continues to be issued, compliance with the provisions within many of the relief legislation measures will be crucial. Having a trained financial professional review these will be a necessity.

The Importance of Your Financial Records

Your finances influence most factors in your organization, from supply chain to inventory to new business models.

Monthly you should be doing reconciliations for the following common accounts:

- Bank accounts
- Accounts receivable
- Accounts payable
- Capital asset inventory
- Payroll accounts (accruals and expenses)

Further, organizations need to pay attention to liquidity and make it top priority. To do this, you'll need to:

- Conduct financial modeling to understand how various scenarios and situations will impact cash flow.
- Manage the assets on their balance sheet.
- Focus on inventory and accounts receivable.

The Benefit of Outsourcing Financial Positions

With tight budgets and limited resources, many organizations have instigated hiring freezes. Yet filling the role of your accounting staff is critical. That's why many organizations are turning to outsourcing to gain the information they need without having to bear the burden of hiring someone full-time.

Financial staff can help you craft a plan to move forward, even during times of crisis and uncertainty.

Outsourced accounting staff with a high level of financial knowledge can:

- Ensure the accuracy and timeliness of your financial data
- Help you manage cash flow
- Present your financial data in a useful and meaningful manner to you
- Analyze market trends and help you define key performance metrics and benchmarking data
- Understand business strengths and weaknesses and identify opportunities
- Save costs and gain expertise with outsourced accounting

Outsourcing through a trusted advisor can give you the answers you need to your pressing financial needs at a substantially lower cost. The economic climate may be uncertain, but your financial records should not be.

HEALTH CARE

The Future Of Inpatient Hospice In Northern Colorado

Those of us who work in hospice often say that hospice is not a place, but rather an approach to care that travels to wherever our patients live. Hospice team members can visit as frequently as daily if needed, but sometimes patients experience a symptom crisis that needs more intensive management in an inpatient setting. This level of hospice care is referred to as General Inpatient, or "GIP".

GIP can be provided in skilled nursing facilities (SNFs) or in hospitals that contract with hospices to do so, and some hospices have their own inpatient units. For nearly 19 years, Pathways has leased a 6-bed inpatient unit known as Pathways Hospice Care Center (PHCC) from McKee Medical Center in Loveland. While we are proud of the excellent care we have provided to thousands of patients and families at PHCC and are grateful for the close collaboration with our colleagues at McKee, this 6-bed unit is simply too small to sustainably meet the community's growing need for inpatient hospice care. Last year there were many days when every bed at PHCC was full, with additional patients queuing up waiting for a bed. We believe the words "hospice" and "waitlist" should never be in the same sentence.

The Colorado State Demographer predicts that the population of Northern Colorado will more than double by 2050. Over the next 20 years, in Larimer County alone, the population of those age 65 and older will grow by 140 percent. We have already seen the impact of this growth as the number of patients we care for each year has been growing consistently by 10 – 15 percent annually.

The need for Northern Colorado to have a freestanding inpatient care center is clear. The time to build it is now.

Pathways is in the advanced planning stages to build a homelike Inpatient Care Center (ICC) on our 3-acre campus a few miles west of I-25 on Highway 392, centrally located within Larimer and Weld Counties. The Pathways ICC will provide the highest level of care in a tranquil, beautiful space intentionally built for this purpose. We are grateful for our continued partnership with McKee Medical Center and will continue to operate PHCC over the next 1 ½ to 2 years until the new building is complete.

Every one of the 12 rooms (with room to expand in the future) will be large enough to accommodate groups of visitors and allow loved ones to comfortably stay overnight. There will be access to outdoor garden spaces where even bedbound patients will be able to enjoy the outdoors from the comfort of their own bed. We will have a spacious lobby; a welcoming chapel; spaces for quiet reflection; a large communal kitchen and dining area; and much more.

FACILITIES

Total Care Total Confidence

Shouldn't your building services contractor give you total confidence that they care as much about the building as you do? For office, practice, facility, or property managers who don't want to have to worry about the upkeep of their office or building, TFC provides professional cleaning and maintenance services by trained, trustworthy technicians. Unlike traditional cleaning companies, TFC provides total facility care to inspire total confidence that we are taking care of everything.

We do this through four cornerstones of our service:

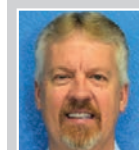

Reliable – Through our processes, policies, and performance, we give our customers the total confidence that our team members will care for their building or buildings in their best interest beyond their expectations. We also build trust with our team members by demonstrating that we look out for their best interests, treat them fairly, and provide them with a supportive, fulfilling working environment.

Experts – The professionalism of TFC extends throughout our company from the way we do business to the team members who get the job done. Our defined policies and procedures give our customers confidence in the technicians that work in their offices and buildings; customers know we treat their facilities as though they were our own. When there's an issue, our subject-matter-experts know how to create innovative solutions. Within our professional work environment, our team members know what is expected of them and what they can expect from us as an employer.

Responsive – Being known as a company that acts with urgency and provides good communication with both our customers and our team members is crucial. For our customers, we ensure communication lines are open when we advise them of issues within a building and they let us know when things aren't quite right. (Or when they're really great!) For our team members, we use methods such as the Daily Passdown and the New Team Member Scorecard to keep team members in the loop on general information and specific performance.

All-Inclusive – TFC provides a wide range of total facility care services for our customers so all they need is one vendor. Regular cleaning? Check. Basic building maintenance? Check. Quarterly deep cleaning? Check. We take care of what they need so they don't have to worry about it. We also provide an abundance of perks for our team members. Good employment with regular hours? Check. Quality training programs with explicit expectations? Check. Opportunities for benefits and advancement? Check. Assistance with pursuing personal and financial dreams? Check. We provide more than just a cleaning service for our customers and more than just an employment opportunity for our team members.

We have decades of total facility care experience. We know what keeps our customers and team members up at night and what allows them to rest easy. Our processes and policies are designed for you to be worry free. Call us today and experience total facility confidence!
