See and be seen at Bixpo

In September, the place to be is Bixpo. Business owners, executives and employees from Northern Colorado, the Boulder Valley, Denver, Wyoming and beyond have made Bixpo the place to see and be seen.

Bixpo, produced by the Boulder County Business Report, Northern Colorado Business Report and Wyoming Business Report, constitutes the single biggest B-to-B networking opportunity in the region. This is where you can open the door to new prospects or close a deal in the works.

Where else can you get your message in front of thousands of prospective buyers in just two days? Where else can you find the just product or service you need?

That's why you want to be at Bixpo, Sept. 17 and 18 at The Ranch in Loveland. This year, 2008, is the fourth Bixpo, which draws attendees and exhibitors from a wide geographic area. The Bixpo B2B Expo gives attendees the opportunity to visit more than 200 exhibits, with businesses representing a vast cross-section of industries. Exhibitors have a chance to leave their mark in the minds of thousands of Bixpo visitors.

Each year Bixpo has offered attendees something new, and this year it's the Idea Expo Seminars. The Idea Expo sessions, presented by area business experts free to Bixpo visitors and exhibitors alike, offer opportunities to learn new professional skills or to discover new ways of taking your business to the next level of success.

Two more new additions to the Bixpo lineup for 2008 are the 40 Under Forty Class of 2008 Awards Luncheon and the Fittest Execs Awards Luncheon. The Wednesday 40 Under Forty lunch will honor 40 of Northern Colorado's rising young professionals. At the Thursday Fittest Execs lunch, six of the region's business leaders will be celebrated for their commitment to fiscal and physical fitness for their companies.

What isn't new at Bixpo 2008? Bixpo After Hours, of course. Presented in partnership with the Greeley/Weld Chamber of Commerce, the Windsor Chamber of Commerce, the Loveland Chamber of Commerce and the Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce, Bixpo After Hours will undoubtedly set new records for attendance and ring the bell on the fun meter.

Special gratitude goes to our many sponsors, including our presenting sponsors, Banner Health and Water Valley. We're also grateful to our Bixpo After Hours sponsors, Public Service Credit Union, Ovations Catering and Sounds of the Rockies. The 40 Under Forty sponsors include EKS&H and FirstBank of Northern Colorado. Fittest Execs is brought to you through the presenting sponsorship of Banner Health and the mentoring sponsorships of The Imaging Center and Miramont Lifestyle Fitness.

We're extremely grateful as well to our media sponsors, CBS 5, KFKA, KUNC and Tri102/K99. Hewlett-Packard Co. sponsored the Cyber Café and provided computers. Thanks also to Ceavco Audio Visual for providing audio-visual services for Bixpo, 40 Under Forty and Fittest Execs.

It goes without saying we wouldn't look as good as we do if it weren't for those decorating demons at Caldera Creative and RC Special Events. New to our list of event partners is RegOnline, who provided registration services for our ticketed events.

Finally, sincere thanks to the staffs of our three newspapers, who began working to bring you Bixpo 2008 even before the doors closed on Bixpo 2007. There isn't a person in our organization who doesn't have a hand in helping us produce this monumental event each year.

So enjoy. It is the year to see and be seen at Bixpo.
We'll see you there.

It is with great pleasure that Water Valley is a gold sponsor of the Bixpo 2008. It has always been a goal of ours to act as a catalyst for the improvement of the quality of life in Northern Colorado and to maintain a progressive attitude in the business community. With this in mind, we felt it was a natural fit to become involved with Bixpo for the fourth year in a row.

This event will give businesses, and the citizens of Northern Colorado, a chance to increase their awareness as they network with exhibitors and other business professionals, in addition to being able to ask questions and share thoughts in an open-forum environment.

As a Windsor and Northern Colorado native, it also gives me great pleasure to assist with staging an event of this magnitude in our own backyard. Those of us who live here realize how much our community has to offer, and it is through events such as Bixpo 2008 that I believe we can increase awareness to the great quality of life along the Front Range in Northern Colorado.

We can help you do that invent

Fourth annual Bixpo adds new events to popular favorites

Every year the producers of Bixpo spice it up with something new.

This year to whet your appetite for the next level of business success, a series of free seminars called Idea Expo has been added. Area experts will speak on a variety of business subjects ranging from recruiting Generation Y employees to maximizing your search engine potential and reducing energy costs with geothermal heating.

And that's just the beginning — there are plenty more topics to choose from. Each Idea Expo session is a 30-minute presentation including an opportunity to ask questions. All the Idea Expo seminars happen in the Larimer County Conference Center on the east side of the East Hall of the First National Bank Exhibition Hall, so feel free to drop by in between visiting the more than 200 exhibitors' booths.

You don't need to eat lunch alone at Bixpo this year because more than 600 people invite you to join them for the 40 Under Forty Class of 2008 Awards Luncheon on Wednesday and the Fittest Execs Awards Luncheon on Thursday. Both of these events will be held in the Thomas M. McKee 4-H Youth and Community Building, to the east of the exhibition hall, each starting at 11:30 a.m. on its respective day.

The 40 Under Forty luncheon celebrates 40 rising young professionals for their achievements at work and in the community. The six Fittest Execs in Northern Colorado will be recognized for their commitment to the idea that good health is good business.

Tickets for both events will be available at the door for $35.

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fittest exec of all?

Being fit is more than just appearances. With the rising cost of health care, it is important that business leaders set the standard for employees and demonstrate how corporate wellness can impact the bottom line. Good health is good business, and 29 of Northern Colorado's highest-powered business leaders have volunteered to show the community what it takes to be fit to run a company in the 21st century.

The Fittest Execs Challenge is a new initiative presented the Northern Colorado Business Report as part of Bixpo 2008.

The brave — and ever-so-slightly competitive — executives all underwent comprehensive fitness assessments by the health-care experts at Banner Health at the beginning of August. Following the individual and confidential assessments, results were evaluated by the Banner team to determine the fittest businessmen and women in Northern Colorado in four age- and gender-based categories.

The final four will be revealed and recognized during the Fittest Execs lunch at Bixpo Sept. 18. Tickets for the luncheon, which begins at 11:30 a.m. in the Thomas M. McKee 4-H Youth and Community Building at The Ranch, just east of the First National Bank Exhibition Hall, will be available at the door for $35.

Fittest Execs is presented by the Northern Colorado Business Report in partnership with Banner Health, title sponsor, as well as The Imaging Center and Miramonte Lifestyle Fitness, mentoring sponsors.

Thanks to all the executives who participated in the inaugural Northern Colorado's Fittest Execs Challenge!

40 Under Forty speaker real homegrown success

LOVELAND — His success as an entrepreneur in ventures ranging from snack vending to telecommunications has given Braun Mincher the freedom to pursue his most recent undertaking — authorship.

The 30-something multimillionaire says writing does not come naturally to him, but a passion for curing what he views as a national epidemic led him to write his first book, "The Secrets of Money: A Guide for Everyone on Practical Financial Literacy."

The Fort Collins native will be sharing some of those secrets on Wednesday, Sept. 17, as the keynote speaker at the luncheon honoring this year's 40 Under Forty professionals.

Mincher, himself a member of the Northern Colorado Business Report's 40 Under Forty Class of 2004, begins his book with a glimpse into his short but immensely successful career. An entrepreneur while still in high school, he was named Colorado's Ernst & Young/Inc. Magazine "Entrepreneur of the Year" in 1994.

While he has founded and sold several successful businesses, the book details his financial missteps as well. In 2002, more people filed for bankruptcy than graduated from college, according to statistics from the U.S. Department of Treasury. The idea that knowledge is power drove Mincher to begin working on the book shortly after selling telecom firm CTI Communications LLC in 2004.

Mincher started with his own knowledge and research, then, tapping his vast network of contacts, handed out about 40 manuscripts for review by experts in the various topics covered. He wrote about the ins, outs and behind-the-scenes dealings of various financial transactions, and admits that some of his industry contacts were not thrilled that he was divulging inside "secrets" — such as how real estate agents are paid on the buyer and seller sides of a transaction — but they conceded that all the information was true.

This year's 40 Under Forty honorees were chosen from more than 100 nominees by leading members of the Northern Colorado business community, some of them, like Mincher, former award-winners themselves. The panel of evaluators included John Benjamin, The Growth Coach in Greeley; Marti Bradley, owner of Pioneer Press in Greeley; Jay Hardy, vice president of community affairs for McWhinney in Loveland; Ann Hutchison, executive vice president of the Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce; Ty Notestine of Thomas and Tyler LLC in Greeley; Chris Osborn, CEO of First National Colorado Inc.; Fort Collins author and IT entrepreneur Tim Reeser; Kelly Peters, chief operations officer with the Rocky Mountain Innovation Initiative in Fort Collins; and Kris Pickett, principal of Lamp, Rynearson & Associates in Greeley. Hardy, Hutchison, Osborn, Reeser and Peters were all members of NCBR's 40 Under Forty Class of 2004.

Sponsors for 40 Under Forty include EKS&H and FirstBank of Northern Colorado.

Tickets for the luncheon, which will begin at 11:30 a.m. in the Thomas M. McKee 4-H Youth and Community Building to the east of the First National Bank Exhibition Hall, will be available at the door for $35.

Capitalizing on the networking atmosphere generated by Bixpo, the Loveland, Greeley, Windsor and Fort Collins Area chambers of commerce are partnering to host the regional Bixpo After Hours on Sept. 18 in the First National Bank Exhibition Hall at The Ranch.

The event is scheduled from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. and will include complimentary appetizers and beverages. Bixpo After Hours is sponsored by Public Service Credit Union and Ovations Catering.

Registration is available through the Northern Colorado Business Report Web site, www.ncbr.com, under Events. The cost is $20. For each person registered, $5 will go back to the member's respective chamber. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $30.

This year, 2008, marks the fourth consecutive Bixpo, with each year offering a different menu of events for attendees. Bixpo After Hours has become the not-to-be-missed opportunity to power leads and referrals for many business people.

"With close to 1,000 business people attending Bixpo After Hours, it has become Northern Colorado's best annual networking opportunity," said Jeff Nuttall, NCBR publisher. "We also can't dismiss the fact that besides being a robust occasion for courting new business contacts, Bixpo After Hours is just plain fun with good food and beverages of choice abounding."

Get wired, go wireless at Bixpo's Cyber Café

Pair the Hewlett-Packard Co.-sponsored Cyber café with a Starbucks coffee stand and Bixpo attendees have at hand two of the key ingredients of successfully doing business: e-mail and coffee.

Buxpo's Cyber Café, located in the southwest corner of the west hall of the First National Bank Exhibition Hall, will keep attendees connected with complimentary wireless Internet access, provided through FRII.

Coffee aficionados will be able to get wired at the Starbucks kiosk also located in the west hall of the First National Bank Exhibition Hall. Starbucks will be on hand both days to provide expos exhibitors and attendees with hot or iced drinks.

"Web-based interaction is integral to business," said Jeff Nuttall, publisher of Bixpo host the Northern Colorado Business Report. "Because Bixpo is a business to business trade show, we're happy to make Internet access available to the attendees and exhibitors."

Bixpo is presented by NCBR, Boulder County Business Report and Wyoming Business Report. The presenting sponsors are Banner Health and Water Valley. Other sponsors include Public Service Credit Union, HP, Caldera Creative, Ovations Catering, KUNC and RC Special Events.

Ovations on hand to serve Bixpoers with need to feed

When Bixpo attendees and exhibitors feel the need to refuel, Ovations Food Services LP is on hand to curb their cravings.

In the First National Bank Exhibition Hall, hot dogs, hamburgers, sandwiches, fries, nachos, popcorn, pizza and other tasty items will be available from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. both Wednesday and Thursday during the Bixpo B2B expo.

If you are looking for a caffeine boost or a soothing cup of tea, it's Starbucks to the rescue. The Starbucks cart will be in the west hall of Bixpo near the Cyber Café. Grab a cup while you check your e-mail compliments of HP, sponsor of the 2008 Cyber Café.

Ovations will also be providing a variety of sumptuous fare at the regional Bixpo After Hours on Wednesday from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Ovations is sponsoring Bixpo After Hours along with Public Service Credit Union and the Northern Colorado Business Report. Cocktails and finger food will be available throughout the Bixpo exhibition halls. Partners for this once-a-year regional opportunity to network are the Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce, Greeley Chamber of Commerce, Loveland Chamber of Commerce and the Windsor Chamber of Commerce.
